

Dear guests,

We hope You and Your loved ones are doing well. At this moment, our highest priority is responsible behavior and care for the health of our employees, You and all other associates. We are closely monitoring the development of the situation around the Covid-19 pandemic, and accordingly we have taken all steps that comply with the recommended procedures and protocols prescribed by the Croatian Institute of Public Health (HZJZ) and the World Health Organization, all to ensure that what we are doing is right and effectively.

When making reservation, we want to feel safe at our restaurant. We can guarantee that we will conduct our business according to the highest hygienic and epidemiological standards.

In these challenging times, we believe that the spirit of togetherness will help us solve everyday challenges by allowing us to go step by step, of course with your support.

We share your passion for food and gastronomy and we hope to have the opportunity to host you soon.

Thank you for your time and understanding.

We are looking forward to meeting you again!

Best regards,

Dubravkin put team
